Title page

The cover image can be changed by using the command `\def\titlefigure{...}` before `\titleframe`, as long as the figure as a 2:1 aspect ratio.
For example:

`\def\titlefigure{elements/title-page-image-alt}`

If you want a solid color, use `\def\titlefigure{}`

The command

`\setlength{\titleboxwidth}{0.65\textwidth}`

changes the width of the titlebox if you need more space.

Aspect ratio

The official ETH template only comes in 16:9.
You can obtain 4:3 slides by passing the option `aspectratio=43`

\documentclass[11pt,aspectratio=43]{beamer}

In this case, you probably want to use the cover image `\def\titlefigure{elements/title-page-image-43}` or any other image in 14:10 aspect ratio, for example `\def\titlefigure{elements/title-page-image-alt-43}`

Font size

The font sizes match the official ETH template quite accurately when the default option `11pt` is used.

You can get slightly smaller or larger text by passing the options `10pt` or `12pt`, respectively.

\documentclass[10pt,aspectratio=169]{beamer}
\documentclass[11pt,aspectratio=169]{beamer} % default
\documentclass[12pt,aspectratio=169]{beamer}

You can also fine-tune the font sizes by modifying the `beamerfontthemeeth.sty` file.

Colors

You need to pick these colors

- `accentcolor` (alert text, blocks)
- `titlefgcolor` (the box on the title page)
- `titlebgcolor` (the background on the title page, in case you don't use an image)

Use these commands at the beginning of the document

\colorlet{titlefgcolor}{ETHGreen}
\colorlet{titlebgcolor}{ETHGreen}
\colorlet{accentcolor}{ETHRed}

■ ETH Purple ■ ETH Gray

Large box

Notice that blocks are a bit larger than the text, that's intended.

Column environments also eat some margins. Use the option [onlytextwidth] if you want to align columns to the wide blocks.

Small box
With some more text

Think outside the box!

And, of course, figures!
